

It is an error to say that a pretty foot is always small, and a worse error to say that a small foot is always pretty.

A normal foot, be it well and individually shod, will do honor to its owner whether that foot is large or small.

As it is already well known Patrician shoes are made equally attractive in the large and the small sizes, and the tall, slender, Gibson Girl has no more difficulty in fitting her long, narrow, aristocratic foot than the dainty Brinkley Girl has in obtaining the slender ankle fit and short instep. Both types of women secure Patrician shoes exactly suited to their style and equally beautiful, displaying the inimitable grace of one type and the irresistible piquancy of the other.

Raleigh Social News

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Raleigh, N. C., November 26.—Miss Flora Wilson and Miss Sophie Casey, of Washington, D. C., who were the guests of Mrs. William J. Andrews the past week, were the recipients of quite a number of social attentions and complimentary functions. Mrs. R. W. Winston entertained at a luncheon in their honor, that was attended by Mrs. W. J. Andrews, Mrs. F. H. Buebe, Mrs. Harrison, Mrs. W. W. Robards, Miss Mattie Bailey, Mrs. W. A. Hoke, Mrs. R. C. Strong, Mrs. W. A. Hoke and Mrs. Charles E. Johnson.

Another delightful event complimentary to Misses Wilson and Casey was a dinner by Mrs. Benahan Cameron, on. Beside the guests of honor, there were present Governor and Mrs. W. W. Kitchin, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Andrews, Judge and Mrs. Platt D. Walker, Will Vass, of the Supreme Court, George W. Lay and Miss Maxwell, of Florida.

Colonel and Mrs. J. E. Pogue gave an automobile ride over the city in honor of Misses Wilson and Casey. The ride was greatly enjoyed by quite a party of invited guests. It preceded the luncheon that was given in their honor by Mrs. R. W. Winston.

Misses Wilson and Casey were at home to their friends Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. William J. Andrews and there were large numbers of callers.

Mrs. J. W. Hunter was hostess Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. H. Dalton, on Park Avenue, for a seven-course luncheon, that was most enjoyable.

For the Johnsonian Book Club Tuesday afternoon the hostess was Mrs. W. J. Andrews. The special study was "Mexico," literary and social features were all so delightful in every detail.

A brilliant reception that attracted probably 250 callers, was that by Mrs. W. A. Hoke, wife of Associate Justice Hoke, of the Supreme Court, Thursday afternoon, complimentary to Mrs. Platt D. Walker, one of Raleigh's newest and most popular matrons. Two getting for the reception was lovely.

The apartments were decorated with yellow chrysanthemums, bamboo and ferns. There was special music by Mr. Owen and Miss Wilson of St. Mary's School, besides a full orchestra. Receiving with Mrs. Hoke and the guest of honor, were Mrs. W. W. Kitchin, Mrs. Salie Clark, Mrs. James S. Manning, Mrs. R. F. Hoke, Mrs. Alex Webb, Mrs. Benahan Cameron.

Misses Sudie and May Johnson are at home again, after more than a year spent in foreign travel. They visited many European countries and spent quite a while in Egypt.

Tuesday afternoon Mrs. J. F. Joyner was the hostess for the Tuesday Afternoon Club, which had quite an interesting literary program.

Mrs. W. E. Manor, who was as Miss Blanche Blake, a decided social favorite here before her marriage to Mr. Manor, is being showered with social attentions. She was a guest of honor Tuesday afternoon for a 3 o'clock tea by Mrs. James O. Litchford, that was most delightful in every respect. For the decorations there were bamboo ferns and burning tapers in profusion. The callers were received by Mrs. Litchford, Mrs. Manor and Mrs. N. W. West. Others assisting in the entertainment were Mrs. D. O. Sunderland, Mrs. W. S. West and Miss Josephine Ashe.

The entertainment of the Johnsonian Book Club by Mrs. William J. Andrews Tuesday afternoon was of interest owing to the fact that the subject studied was "Mexico," and that there entered into the features of the program the inspection of quite an interesting collection of Mexican curios and relics, collected by Mr. Andrews while he was secretary to Minister Ransom. In addition to these there were papers of special interest. One by Mrs. Thos. E. Kennan, was on "Maximilian and Carlotta," and the other by Mrs. Charles E. Johnson, was on "Diaz and the Republic."

Wilmington Social News

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

Wilmington, N. C., November 26.—The marriage of Miss Lillian Kenly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Kenly, and Charles Raymond Humphreys, was one of the most notable events of the week.

It was celebrated Tuesday afternoon at St. James's Episcopal Church, the rector, Rev. W. H. Milton performing the ceremony. The edifice was beautifully decorated, and the music, under the direction of Professor George L. Johnson, organist, was especially attractive.

The bride entered with her father, who gave her away, being preceded by her sister and maid of honor, Miss Helen Kenly. The groom was escorted to the altar by his best man, Robert C. Cantwell, Jr.

The bridesmaids were Misses Page and Nannie Humphreys, sisters of the groom; Miss Anna Miller, of New Jersey, a cousin of the bride, and Misses Mildred Smith, Bessie Albright and Bessie Craft, of this city. The groomsmen were Walter Kenly, a brother of the bride; Dr. Montague Boyd, of Atlanta, Ga., and J. Victor Grainger, Jr., of Pittsboro, N. C.

Following the wedding ceremony came a delightful reception at the home of the bride's parents. Preceding the nuptial event a number of social events were given in honor of the young couple and bridal party.

Mrs. John R. Kenly royally entertained at an elegant dinner. Miss Kenly and Mr. Humphreys were on a complimentary trip to Wrightsville Beach, with an oyster roast while there, and Miss Bessie Albright entertained at a reception Monday night at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Percy R. Albright, on South Third Street.

Among the out of the city guests in attendance upon the marriage were Mr. and Mrs. George A. Cross, of Baltimore, Miss Anna Miller, of New Jersey; Mrs. J. M. Barber, of Washington, D. C.; Dr. Montague Boyd, of Atlanta, Ga.; Walter Kenly, of Maryland, and Mr. Glenn Kenly, of Pensacola, Fla.

Another wedding of interest transpired Wednesday when Miss Marla Burghwin Maffitt, daughter of Mrs. Sallie B. Maffitt, of this city, and John J. Parker, of Monroe, N. C., were married. The wedding took place at the home of the bride's mother, on South Fourth Street, and was a decidedly pretty home affair.

The color scheme, artistically carried out in the decorations, was white and pink. Rev. W. H. Milton performed the ceremony, and the bridal party was made up of Miss Sarah Maffitt, a sister of the bride, maid of honor; Miss Caroline Parker, sister of the groom, bridesmaid, and C. D. Drexler, of Hampton, Va., best man.

In a social way there were no events to mark Thanksgiving Day in Wilmington, except the annual tournaments on the links of the Cape Fear Golf Club. Play lasted all day, and at noon an elegant luncheon was served in the building of the Country Club, on the grounds, and later an oyster roast was partaken of.

One of the big features for society next week will be the November dance of the L'Arros German Club, the evening of the 28th.

Durham Social News

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

Durham, N. C., November 26.—Mrs. L. L. Morehead was the hostess of the Up-to-Date Club on Thursday afternoon. The house was beautifully decorated with quantities of chrysanthemums and American Beauty roses.

Two papers were read, Mrs. E. N. Duke having for her subject, "Henry VIII and His Court." Mrs. J. M. Manning's subject was "Henry VIII and His Court." The program concluded, then came the distribution of booklets, which a beautiful luncheon was served in the dining-room.

The "Tourists" met Thursday afternoon with Mrs. K. K. Powe, in West Durham. The study of Turkey grows more interesting with each meeting.

LET US MAKE YOU FAT 50c Box Free

We Will Prove at Our Own Expense That It Is No Longer Necessary to Be Thin, Scrawny, and Undeveloped.

"Gee! Look at that pair of skinny scarecrows! Why don't they try Sargol?"

This is a generous offer to every thin man or woman in Richmond and vicinity. We positively guarantee to increase your weight to your own satisfaction or no pay. Think this over—think what it means. At our own risk, we offer to put 10, 15, 20 pounds of good, solid "stay there" flesh on your bones, to fill out hollows in cheeks, neck or bust, to get rid of that "peaky" look, to rejuvenate and revitalize your whole body until it tingles with vibrant energy; to do this without drastic diet, "tonics," severe physical culture "stunts," detention from business or any income requirements—if we fail it costs you nothing.

We particularly wish to hear from the excessively thin, those who know the humiliation and embarrassment which only skinny people have to suffer in silence. We want to send a free 50-cent package of our new discovery to the people who are called "skeletons" and "bean poles" to bony women, whose clothes never look "anyhow," no matter how expensively dressed, to the skinny men who fail to gain social or business recognition on account of their starved appearance. We care not whether you have been thin from birth, whether you have lost flesh through sickness, how many flesh builders you have experimented with. We take the risk and assume it cheerfully. If we cannot put pounds and pounds of healthy flesh on your frame we don't want your money.

The new treatment increases the red corpuscles in the blood, strengthens the nerves and puts the digestive tract into such shape that your food is assimilated and turned into good, solid, healthy flesh instead of passing through the system undigested and unassimilated. It is a thoroughly scientific principle, this Sargol, and builds up the thin, weak and debilitated without any nauseous dosing. In many conditions it is better than cod liver oil, and certainly is much pleasanter to take.

Send for the 50-cent box to-day. Convince us by your prompt acceptance of this offer that you are writing in good faith and really desire to gain in weight. The 50-cent package which we will send you free will be an eye-opener to you. We send it that you may see the simple, harmless nature of our new discovery, how easy it is to take, how you gain flesh privately without knowledge of friends or family until you astonish them by the prompt and unmistakable results.

We could not publish this offer in The Times-Dispatch if we were not prepared to live up to it. It is only the astounding results of our new method of treatment that make such an offer and such a guarantee possible on our part. So cut off the coupon to-day and mail it at once, with full name and address, to The Sargol Company, 357-2, Herald Bldg., Binghamton, N. Y., and please inclose 10c with your letter to help pay distribution expenses. Take our word, you'll never regret it.

Free Sargol Coupon

This certificate, with ten cents to help pay postage and distribution expenses, entitles the holder to one 50-cent package of Sargol, the Flesh Builder. The Sargol Co., 357-2 Herald Bldg., Binghamton, N. Y.

Mrs. W. A. Graham gave a talk on "The Conquest of Assyria," Mrs. W. D. Carmichael read a paper on the "Crusades," while Mrs. Powe read selections from "The Talmud." After the literary program a buffet luncheon was served. The house was most attractive with chrysanthemums and autumn leaves. Those present were Mrs. W. D. Carmichael, Mrs. C. W. Toms, Mrs. W. A. Graham, Mrs. W. A. Erwin, Mrs. V. S. Bryan, Mrs. A. E. Lloyd, Mrs. M. H. Jones and Mrs. J. S. Cunningham.

Mrs. J. Harper Erwin entertained on Friday afternoon in honor of her guest, Miss Jessamine Gant, of Burlington. The pretty home was ablaze with carnations and gorgeous yellow chrysanthemums. After the game, refreshments were served. Enjoying Mrs. Erwin's hospitality were Miss Nell Watts, of Baltimore; Miss Lila Wright, of Richmond; Mrs. Frank Brown, of Durham; Mrs. J. A. Dally, of Durham; Mrs. B. U. Brooks, Mrs. Williams, Mrs. E. G. Muse, Mrs. George Nash, Mrs. J. S. Cunningham, Mrs. A. E. Lloyd, Mrs. Brooks, Mrs. H. Wannamaker, and Mrs. W. K. Boyd.

On Tuesday afternoon Miss Joe Taylor entertained the Tuesday Bridge Club, also a large number of special guests. Miss Lottie Sharpe made the highest score.

Thursday afternoon Mrs. W. K. Boyd was hostess of the Halcyan Literary Club. This club is studying Southern literature, and there were two splendid papers. The first was read by Mrs. Alphonsus Cobb, on "The Influence of Politics and Oratory in Literature," the second by Mrs. E. G. Muse, on "The White House in the Time of Bull Madison."

At 4 o'clock on Thursday afternoon Miss Corolla Barnes and F. G. Womble were united in marriage at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. L. Barnes, Rev. J. A. Dally officiating. Miss Corolla Barnes was maid of honor and W. N. Watson acted as best man.

Telegrams and Cablegrams May be Sent by Telephone

ANOTHER STEP FORWARD

THE TELEPHONE AGAIN SUPPLEMENTS THE TELEGRAPH.

At night, on Sundays, or on holidays, when your local Western Union office is closed, or if there is no Western Union office in your town, you may send a telegram or cablegram to any part of the world, even to ships at sea, by forwarding it by Long Distance Bell Telephone to the nearest "all night" telegraph office, and by paying the usual telephone toll charge.

To do this simply call "Telegram." The operator will connect you with "Long Distance," who will give you the telephone charge. If you are a Bell telephone subscriber the cost of both the telegraph and telephone messages may be charged to you, or to the addressee.

Telegrams addressed to you will be read to you over the Long Distance telephone by the Western Union Company when your local telegraph office is closed, or if there is no Western Union office in your town, if you will pay the telephone toll from the nearest all night telegraph office.

This charge will be small, since a number of additional "all night" telegraph offices have been opened to care for this service.

The telephone company, however, undertakes only to place the subscriber in communication with the telegraph office—it assumes no responsibility for errors in transmission.

TO TRANSMIT TELEGRAMS BY TELEPHONE SAY "TELEGRAM."

Are you a Bell Telephone Subscriber?
